

Dining Options in Concord

- 1. Sally Ann Food Shop – The closest food shop to CA, Sally Ann’s has won numerous awards for their scones, and also has freshly baked pastries, sandwiches, bread and coffee.
73 Main St. (978) 369-4558
- 2. Main Streets Market & Café – Located past Bank of America and down a small alley, Main Street Café offers great Chai teas, pre-made sandwiches, wraps, and pasta, and a cozy atmosphere. Slightly expensive.
42 Main St. (978) 369-9948.
- 3. Comella’s – Family-owned chain known for generous servings of Italian standards.
33 Main St. (978) 369-9555.
- 4. The Concord Cheese Shop – One of the more expensive options for students. The Cheese shop has cold drinks, sandwiches, prepared dishes and, of course, cheese.
29 Walden St. (978) 369-5778.
- 5. Helen’s – Formally known as “Brigham’s,” Helen’s is a great place to grab anything from burgers to wraps, cheese sticks to salads, and has ice cream sundaes to die for.
17 Main St. (978) 369-9885.
- 6. Sorrento’s Pizzeria – Sorrento’s offers great thin-crust, brick oven pizza. Slightly more expensive than chief rival New London, Sorrento’s has a wide variety of unusual pizza options, complete with the classics. Also offers subs, salads and pasta.
58 Thoreau St. (978) 369-0938.
- 7. New London Style Pizzeria – Directly across the street from competitor Sorrento’s, New London offers pizza with a more classic feel and a slightly cheaper price.
71 Thoreau St. (978) 369-7053.
- 8. La Provence – Another expensive option with a gourmet feel, La Provence is a café that serves hot soups, sandwiches and fresh salads.
105 Thoreau St. (978) 371-7428.
- 9. Chang An Restaurant – Situated across the train tracks, Chang An’s serves good Chinese food for a reasonable price. The restaurant has a comfortable, sit-down feel.
10 Concord Crossing. (978) 369-5288.
- 10. Starbucks – Across the street from Dunkin’ Donuts, the world-famous coffee chain offers drinks and snacks for a slightly higher price, but provides a nice ambiance with couches and armchairs.
159 Sudbury Rd. (978) 287-0183.